HOW TO GET AROUND

Student IDs

The YDS Registrar will distribute your student identification cards on Tuesday, August 28. Until then, if for some reason your ID is requested (e.g. at Payne Whitney Gymnasium), you may give the person your NetID (three letters and two numbers), and they will confirm your beautiful face.

Exterior Doors at YDS

During BTFO on weekdays, all exterior doors on Sterling Divinity Quadrangle will be open from 7:30 AM until 6:00 PM. Outside of these hours, including weekends, an ID is required. Ask a BTFO leader or wait to sneak in behind someone! Divinity School apartments can only be accessed by residents.

Transportation

Yale offers a number of ways to get around campus and parts of New Haven for free or for very little, including a free shuttle, a free, escorted, nighttime safe ride (door-to-door), and an official bikeshare. For more information on transportation at Yale and in New Haven, greater Connecticut, and the Tri-State Area (New York, New Jersey, and Connecticut), visit <https://to.yale.edu/>. Pro tip: if you want to get picked up at the main side entrance to YDS, tell whomever (or enter it into your app) “Lot 11”. This is particularly useful if you don’t want to go on a wild goose chase for your DoorDash driver delivering your late-night munchies.

Parking

Parking on the YDS campus is open to all during BTFO. However, during the academic year, it is reserved for faculty, staff, and residents of the Divinity School apartments. Others may find non-resident zoned on-street parking on Canner and Saint Ronan Streets. Fold your side-view mirrors or risk it getting side-swiped!

Naming Conventions for Classrooms at YDS

Finding classrooms can be pretty confusing, even for the third year MDiv. All classrooms have numbers, and some also have names. It’s best to pay attention to both, as people call them by one or the other. Generally, classrooms that begin with an ‘N’ are on the north side (i.e. parking lot side), and those that begin with an ‘S’ are on the south side (i.e. “downtown” side). ‘100’ rooms are on the first floor and ‘200’ rooms are on the second floor. If there are only two digits, those are in the rear buildings behind Marquand Chapel. Beware! You cannot walk directly between Marquand Chapel and the S200s. You must go down before you go up. Happy hunting!

SCHEDULE

Tuesday, August 20

3:00-5:00 PM

Grad Info Fair

McDougal Graduate Student Center (60 Sachem Street)

Not a formal part of BTFO, the Grad Info Fair is sponsored by the McDougal Graduate Student Center and is a opportunity to browse tables of university services departments, city merchants, banks, arts & cultural groups . . . and to get free samples, prizes, and snacks! It's also a chance to connect with other incoming graduate & professional school students!

Wednesday, August 21

3:00-4:30 PM

Orientation: Office of International Students & Scholars

421 Temple Street

The Office of International Students & Scholars (OISS) will be holding a mandatory orientation and immigration check-in for all international students. This session will not only cover important immigration information, but also provide you with information on getting settled into New Haven. Please bring your passport, I-20 or DS-2019, and visa stamp.

3:00-4:15 PM

Orientation: Andover Newton Seminary's Educational Program

Latourette (S223)

Andover Newton's mission statement reads as follows: "Deeply rooted in Christian faith, and radically open to what God is doing now, Andover Newton educates inspiring leaders for faith communities." This information session will help those who intend to enroll in Andover Newton Seminary's diploma program to understand the purpose of that program and the process through which students blend it with the Master of Divinity degree program. The session will also be a great way for one who is simply curious about the program to learn more about it and about Andover Newton.

4:00-8:00 PM

Orientation: Berkeley Divinity School

Berkeley Center (363 Saint Ronan Street)

Berkeley Divinity School at Yale will host an orientation for all incoming Berkeley students at the Berkeley Center, a short block away from the YDS campus. At 4:00 PM there will be an orientation introducing incoming students to the Berkeley staff, student leaders, the worship schedule, academic curriculum as well as the ELM and Annand programs. There will be time for questions and conversation with returning students. At 6:00 PM, a community Eucharist will take place in St. Luke's Chapel. Immediately following, a community dinner will be hosted, to which returning students and incoming students are welcome.

4:30-5:30 PM

Reception: Andover Newton Students and Affiliated Faculty

Old Common Room Patio

Rain venue: Old Common Room

Andover Newton students, new and returning, will have the chance at this gathering to meet or reconnect with one another over light refreshments, while also learning more in an informal setting about Andover Newton.

Building a Community that Flourishes: Locating Ourselves

Old Refectory

The first of three, this session will be led by Jessica Church '21 MDiv and Geronimo Desumala '21 MDiv. As we start to build community among the 2019 YDS incoming class, it is important that we get to know others and ourselves. We'll begin by charting our personal journeys and then sharing our stories visually and verbally in small groups.

3:15-3:45 PM

Introduction: Yale University Chaplain's Office

Old Refectory

Join us for an ice cream break with the Yale University Chaplains.

- ★ Sharon Kugler, University Chaplain

Discover your academic advisor

We highly encourage you to use a little bit of this time to find out who your academic advisor is at the registrar's office. Take note of their office location and go on a stroll to look for it!

1:30-2:35 PM

Building a Community that Flourishes: Power and Privilege

Old Refectory

This final session will be led by Kate Ott '00 MAR, Associate Professor of Christian Social Ethics at Drew University Theological School and Lynn Sullivan, Director of Community Equity. YDS is a diverse community that brings together people from all different backgrounds with varying levels of power and privilege. Understanding, acknowledging, and respecting these differences helps us cultivate radical collaboration with those around us.

3:45-4:00 PM	Closing Activity and Blessing	The Quad
4:00 PM	Ice Cream Social	The Quad
	Rain Venue: Second Floor Common Room
	You did it! You officially made it through BTFO! Come join us out on the Quad for Ashley's Ice Cream and PopCentric to close out the final full day of BTFO programming. You deserve it!

Tuesday, August 27

- 7:30-8:30 AM      YDS Veterans Breakfast      Jonathan Edwards Dining Room (N126)
 Veterans and active duty military students at YDS are invited to join SCO (and Registrar) Lisa Huck '88 MDiv for a light breakfast in their honor. There's no agenda, just a chance to introduce yourself and make connections. We will also be joined by Jack Beecher, Veteran & Military Liaison at Yale. Come and meet your fellow students and learn a bit about the community of veterans at YDS and Yale.
- 8:00 AM      Berkeley Morning Eucharist      Berkeley Center (363 Saint Ronan Street)
 All are welcome to attend this Berkeley Divinity School event! Every morning during BTFO, the Berkeley Center will be offering an opportunity to participate in Morning Prayer and Eucharist with the Berkeley Community. Everyone is welcome to take part.
- 8:30-10:30 AM      Registration Breakfast Party      Second Floor Common Room
 Registration itself will open at 9:00 AM, but from 8:30-9:00 Lisa Huck '88 MDiv will give a brief presentation about how to register for courses using Online Course Selection. Lisa will remain available throughout the morning until 10:30 AM to help you through the process and answer questions on all things registration-y! Both the party and the presentation are optional, so if you have questions, need a bit more explanation, or just like to do things in a group, come on by! Your long-awaited Yale identification cards will be handed out that during this time. Breakfast will be provided.
- 11:00 AM-2:30 PM      Tours of the Library
 Take a tour of the Divinity Library led by one of our knowledgeable and friendly librarians. The library will be an important academic and social space during your time at YDS. Discover the beautiful Trowbridge Reference Room and the iconic Day Missions Room, both of which are favorite study spaces. If you need something more solitary, check out the carrels along the ground floor. Your tour leader will point out the location of the printer, workstations, and scanners, and discuss the many services and resources provided by the library. You will get a demo of the "rolling" book stacks and see one of the few chapels located inside a library! Tours will start every half hour at the following times: 11:00, 11:30, 12:00, ~~12:30~~, 1:00, 1:30, 2:00, 2:30
Assemble inside the front door of the library near the circulation desk and a librarian will greet you.

11:00 AM-12:00 PM
or 2:00-3:00 PM

Portfolio Boot Camp

Niebuhr Hall (N123)

*All incoming students are required to attend one session with a laptop. These are the last two of three offered; the previous being offered on Thursday, August 22.

This session, led by Bill Goettler, Associate Dean for Ministerial and Social Leadership, will offer a brief introduction to the e-portfolio that every YDS student maintains. Bring your laptop and get started on the portfolio that will help you work with mentors during your time of study and beyond.

4:00 PM

Yale Divinity School Convocation

Marquand Chapel

The official, ceremonial start to the academic year, service is attended by all of the YDS community, including returning students, faculty, and staff. You are encouraged to dress a little less casually than normal. Some students have even been known to wear their national costume!

5:00 PM

Reception

Old Refectory

Join the entire YDS community for hors d'oeuvres and beverages to celebrate your incoming class and the beginning of what will be a great academic year for all.

HAVE A LITTLE FUN

We know we're throwing a lot at you during BTFO while you're also busy with life, unpacking, and endlessly twisting IKEA allen wrenches. Take some time to relax a bit whenever you can. Need a ride or someone to go on an adventure with? Post it on the 'Yale Divinity School 2019 Admits' Facebook page

Museums

Yale owned museums are free and totally awesome! Check them out here <https://www.yale.edu/research-collections/museums-galleries>.

Connecticut has beaches?!

Yes! There are many, including one big one: Connecticut's largest shoreline park, Hammonasset Beach State Park. It offers over two miles of beach to enjoy swimming, strolling along the boardwalk, or just relaxing in the sun and surf. It's located in the town of Madison, exactly 22.6 miles from YDS. Cars with Connecticut license plates park for free. So, befriend a Connecticuter!

Sports!

Connecticut isn't really known for national sports teams, with clear exception for the WNBA's Connecticut Sun! In the meantime, Yale College Athletics can be pretty fun to check out. Some sports teams will already be competing by BTFO (e.g. water polo). Visit <http://www.yalebulldogs.com/> for the events schedule. Boola Boola!

TV is Educational

So maybe you just want to chill inside. That's cool. It's humid out. Did you know that Yale has free cable TV on campus, including access to HBO GO? Visit <https://studenttechnology.yale.edu/guide/incoming-students> and look for Yale Television. As a Yale student, you also get discounted subscriptions to things like Spotify Premium, Hulu, and Showtime. Visit <https://www.spotify.com/us/student/> to sign up.

IKEA/Home Depot/Target/Grocery Runs

Okay, so we know you can't totally relax. So, you might as well make some fun out of it. Some Small Group Leaders (with cars!) are willing to make trips to IKEA, Home Depot, etc. Pay attention for these announcements. If you're willing to take your classmates, post it on Facebook! Pro tip: the Long Wharf taco trucks (totally legit and authentic says one Californian), are a mere hundreds of feet away from IKEA. Forget the meatballs. Don't forget to tip your driver . . . with tacos.

NEED ASSISTANCE?

Blue Phones

Approximately 500+ exterior phones are strategically located throughout the campus and are readily identified at night by blue lights located above or near them. The phones are equipped with red emergency buttons for direct connection to the University Police for police, fire, or medical emergencies and many of the phones have keypad for dialing any campus number. For more information on public safety at Yale and in New Haven, visit <https://your.yale.edu/community/public-safety>.

Urgent Medical Needs

The Acute Care Department at Yale Health is open 24 hours a day, 365 days a year for those with serious or acute illnesses or injuries. All students receive Yale Health Basic Coverage services free of charge. This includes care in Student Health, Acute Care, and Mental Health & Counseling for students amongst other services. Acute illnesses or injuries require prompt care but will not generally cause loss of life or severe impairment if left untreated for a brief time. After hours and on weekends, call Acute Care at 203 432 0123 before coming in. Yale Health is located at 55 Lock Street. For more information, visit <https://yalehealth.yale.edu/acute-care>.

Pastoral Care

Moving and making moves in your life is, without a doubt, stressful and challenging. You are encouraged to ask for help whenever you need it. Please don't hesitate to reach out to the BTFO leadership team. Additionally, the Yale University Chaplain is a great resource for pastoral care. In addition to a great team of listeners and multi-religious spaces for relaxation, they have free ice cream!

Disability Related Accommodation or Service

The Yale Resource Office on Disabilities (ROD) works with all students. Registering with the ROD is a required first step for students who wish to request a disability related accommodation or service, including but not limited to sign language interpretation, adaptive computer technology, special transportation, and note takers. Even if they are unsure about their eligibility, students must contact the ROD and meet with the Director to discuss accommodation(s). Appropriate documentation is required and will be discussed with the student. For more information, visit <https://rod.yale.edu/student-information>.

Contact Numbers

Please don't hesitate to contact Geronimo Desumala, BTFO Coordinator, +1 510 331 3606, if you have any hint of a question or concern. If we don't have the answer, we'll find someone who does.
