The Catholic Community at Cornell (CCC) and the Ithaca College Catholic Community (ICCC) are outreach ministries of the Roman Catholic Diocese of Rochester, New York. CCC is affiliated with Cornell United Religious Work (Cornell University), a resource group within the Office of Spirituality and Meaning-Making. ICCC is affiliated with the Office of Religious and Spiritual Life (Ithaca College). Both ministries are under the leadership of a single Priest-Director appointed by the Bishop of Rochester.

TITLE | Campus Minister for Student Engagement
REPORTS TO | Priest-Director, Fr. Daniel McMullin
STATUS | The Campus Minister for Student Engagement is a year-round, full-time, benefit eligible position who ministers on both campuses. Pay range is commensurate with experience.
STARTING DATE | July 1, 2022.

Guided by the principle of Empowered by the Spirit, the Campus Minister for Student Engagement joins an established campus ministry team in nurturing and strengthening committed Roman Catholic students and others within the academic community who strive to express their faith in Jesus Christ in both words and action.

The Campus Minister networks with and among students, peer organizations (e.g., CCMA), and the Diocesan church to stay current with trends and practices in campus ministry and the Catholic Church.

SPECIFIC RESPONSIBILITIES |

- Maintain visible outreach presence on both campuses by regular attendance at student campus events, including but not limited to concerts, student presentations, receptions, sporting events, etc.
- Plan and lead ministry-sponsored social outings and community-building activities both on- and off-campus.
- Attend (including preparation, set-up, and clean-up) regularly scheduled weekly events, especially Mass and community dinners.
- Manage all social media presence (e.g., Facebook, Instagram) and campus ministry website for both institutions:
  - www.cornellcatholic.org
  - www.ithaca.edu/religious-and-spiritual-life/catholic-community
- Advertise and promote all events sponsored by the campus ministry and its recognized student groups.
- Attend all staff meetings as well as scheduled meetings of both the CURW Affiliates and IC Chaplains.
- Collaborate in the preparation and execution of regularly scheduled retreats.
- Support students by directing them to appropriate pastoral and therapeutic resources on and off campus.
- Learn each institution’s structure for recognizing and supporting student organizations.

REQUIREMENTS |

- Must be a whole-hearted disciple of Jesus Christ and practicing Roman Catholic who is willing to uphold the teachings of the Catholic Church and work cooperatively in its endeavors.
- Must be a self-motivated individual, comfortable working collaboratively, and able to meet deadlines.
Minimum of bachelor’s degree in related field; preferred master’s degree in Theology, Pastoral Studies, or an equivalent.
Exceptional communication skills (both oral and written).
Excellent computer skills and social media savvy.
Regular availability on nights and weekends is essential.
A car and driver’s license are required.
While performing the duties of this job, the employee is frequently required to stand, walk, sit, talk, and hear. The employee must occasionally lift and/or move up to 50 pounds.
Must successfully complete MANDATORY diocesan training. This includes Safe Environment Training, knowledge of and signed acceptance of Code of Conduct, and a Background Check prior to working within the Diocese.

ADDITIONAL |

Fluency in a second language, particularly Korean or Spanish, would be welcome.

To apply please submit cover letter, résumé, and three professional references (with contact information) to:

Father Daniel McMullin
dtm33@cornell.edu.

Only electronic submissions will be considered.