The YDS Office of Student Affairs seeks 2 students to be the Co-Coordinators of the DivFarm. The DivFarm Co-Coordinators manage and maintain the Divinity Farm from March 23, 2020 – November 2020 (ending date depends on weather).

The DivFarm Coordinators should anticipate working 15 hours collectively. The hours are flexible and the schedule may vary over the course of the Spring, Summer and Fall.

Duties include:
- Managing the DivFarm from March 2020 – November 2020
- Spring clean-up of the DivFarm
- Preparation of planting beds for spring planting
- Assigning plots
- Collecting and processing compost
- Planting
- Weeding
- Tilling
- General Maintenance of the farm grounds
- Planning 5 events at the DivFarm (June, July, August, September, October)

Qualifications include:
- Exceptional work ethic
- Experience with project management and a strong sense of project ownership, including confidence in managing projects through to completion.
- Demonstrated ability to manage multiple tasks simultaneously
- Knowledge of and previous experience in crop and farm grounds maintenance, sustainability, and budgeting
- Previous experience in managing volunteers
- Exceptional communication skills including the ability to craft professional emails

To apply, please email Pamela Bloomfield (pamela.bloomfield@yale.edu) one document including a resume and a one-page response to the following:
A) Describe your experience of the DivFarm during your time at Yale Divinity School.
B) What gifts and experiences would you bring to the work of managing and maintaining the DivFarm?
C) Please detail all other commitments you have made for March 2020 – November 2020 (vacations, volunteer work, classes, paid work).

Completed applications are due by 11:59pm on Friday, February 21, 2020