The 355-year old First Congregational Church of Greenwich is a physical centerpiece of the Old Greenwich/Riverside community, a beloved church home for a sizable congregation as well as a valued community resource. First Church is a beacon of love and hope, welcoming all who would join us on their faith journey. We are an open and affirming congregation with committed members, vibrant worship, a wonderful music ministry, Christian education for all ages, dynamic youth programs, a long history of mission outreach (including a 54-year old thrift shop operated by our Women’s Fellowship that has allocated more than $4,500,000 to local, regional, national and international charities focused on women, children and families, currently averaging over $150,000 per year), and a large preschool and summer day camp. In recent years we have undertaken major renovations to the church and church properties. The Meetinghouse, our main worship space, has been transformed. The sanctuary now has flexible seating, state of the art sound and light systems, magnificent new flooring, and is fully handicap accessible. Finally, we have significantly streamlined our governance structure to ensure transparency and effective leadership.

As a multi-generational community, we must continue to respond to our members at all stages of life. We need to grow our membership, recognizing that engaging young families and individuals is a priority. We continue to consider fresh ideas and initiatives as well as alternative forms of worship, outreach and fellowship. Having adopted a new governance structure and being poised to complete major renovations to all our properties, we are now ready to create together with our new Senior Pastor a Strategic Vision that will carry us forward together--honoring our past, celebrating the present and building a strong foundation for the future.
We are seeking a spiritual leader who will love our congregation and listen to its ideas while supporting the Senior Pastor and his leadership, continuity and vision, as well as working hand in hand with the congregation, lay leaders and staff to develop and implement the church’s Strategic Vision. He or she will be an inspiring preacher who rejoices in leading a congregation with diverse faith backgrounds.

We value living in a lively suburban village on Long Island Sound that has a small town feel yet is part of the Town of Greenwich with its population of 60,850. We are an active, neighborly community where kids ride their bikes to friends’ houses and neighbors look out for each other. There is a strong, high spirit of volunteerism in community organizations and town government. Greenwich enjoys excellent public and private schools, libraries, cultural opportunities, parks and beaches and is only one hour from New York City by train or car.

We currently have 730 active members, and English is the primary language for ministry. The open position is for a settled, full time, Associate Pastor. The support package will likely exceed Connecticut Conference guidelines.

Scope of Work
The Associate Pastor’s Scope of Work (40 - 50 hours weekly / 10-12 units) can be summarized as follows:

- A mature, emotionally secure person; able to be compassionate and discrete with others, especially the bereaved and emotionally vulnerable.
- Flexible: responds effectively to surprises, remains calm and rational under stress.
- Self-starter able to work independently.
We know that our church community grows (in numbers and faith) and people attend services most frequently when there are well-presented and thought-provoking sermons. Our congregation values sermons that help us think about the world around us and inspire us to walk in the path of God. We are a forward-thinking congregation, with a high level of spiritual diversity and disparate faith journeys. In the modern world, where all of us are pulled in many directions, the sermon is invaluable in bringing the congregation together. Excellent sermons help people prioritize church over other conflicting commitments.

In addition, First Church is truly the community church for Old Greenwich and Riverside, which is something in which we take great pride. Our church was founded along with the town of Greenwich and we continue to be an anchor in the community. On Founder’s Day each year, the First Selectman of Greenwich comes to read a proclamation commending First Church. On Christmas, our pews are packed for four different services (with nearly 1,400 participants in all). At a recent Halloween “Trunk or Treat” event (our first), a significant portion of the participants were non-parishioners. Prior pastors and Associate Pastors have chaired the Greenwich Fellowship of Clergy; others have been and are Cub Scout leaders, school class parents, coaches and otherwise directly involved in the community. As a community church, it is important that we have a Associate Pastor who embraces and engages with both our church community and the larger Old Greenwich/Riverside community.

Compensation and Support

The total compensation package may exceed Connecticut Conference guidelines and include salary plus benefits. We have a recently renovated parsonage on our church campus that will be home for our new Associate Pastor.

Opportunities for professional support and growth are available through the Connecticut Conference of the UCC and the Fairfield West Association, which is one of 15 Associations in Connecticut. In addition to the availability of the Conference Minister and Staff, the Connecticut Conference offers various Communities of Practice or Excellence Groups that provide a way to share tips and best practices, ask questions of colleagues and provide mutual support and guidance. The Fairfield West Association provides pastoral support through the Southwest Senior Regional Minister and offers periodic breakfast programs on topics of interest.

In addition, the Greenwich Fellowship of Clergy, which consists of more than 40 members who represent various religious organizations, meets monthly and sponsors interfaith services and projects several times a year.
Who is God Calling to Minister with Us?

We seek a pastor who will minister to the current congregation and assist us in understanding where First Church needs to be in the future and how we can best get there. We are proud of our heritage and have been relatively successful over the last few years in attracting young families, but older parishioners still outweigh the younger ones and we understand we need to continue to adapt in order to remain relevant in the future.

First Church has been focused ‘beyond its walls’ for its full history and we expect our Associate Pastor will help lead us down that path. The two most specific ways this can be accomplished are 1) by inspiring us in worship to lead a Christian life in all of our interactions, and 2) helping us to refresh our outreach. Our Church supports many organizations in the Fairfield County area as well as contributing to specific national and international needs and has historically organized mission trips (both youth and adult) to expand our reach beyond our home territory. Having an inspiring leader who shares that interest will assist us in continuing and honing these efforts.

Our congregation is calling for a leader who can continue to help First Church be a beacon of love and hope while encouraging us to think about the world around us and inspire us to do God’s work in our community and beyond. We are searching for a leader who can appreciate and minister to congregants who have a wide range of political views and spiritual perspectives. Our town may be somewhat unusual in that we are split almost equally between Independents, Republicans and Democrats. Our members also come from diverse religious backgrounds, including Catholic as well as other Protestant denominations.

It is important for our Associate Pastor to understand and appreciate that many of the members of First Church and the surrounding community are highly-educated and affluent. These characteristics can be both a benefit and a challenge. We have an active and motivated community, but also one that can be strong-willed, passionate and opinionated.

Areas of Excellence

Maturing in Effective Proclamation and Preaching / Delivering Sermons - Given their busy lives, our congregants are pulled in many directions but make an effort to attend church each week. It makes that effort easier when they know they will be met with an inspiring, thought-provoking and well-delivered sermon. For many of us, Sunday morning is our weekly “reality-check”, our opportunity to step away from our overly-scheduled, stressful lives to gain perspective on how to align our spiritual beings with today’s demanding environment.

Understanding Community Context – Being on the verge of completion of major renovations to all our properties and having simplified our governance structure, we believe we are in a good place to work with our Associate Pastor to develop and implement the spiritual and strategic vision that will provide a launching ground for the modern day faith journey, not only of our church community but of the greater Old Greenwich/Riverside community. To truly lead us in that regard, and support our Senior Pastor, it is imperative that our Associate Pastor be supportive toward joining that larger community.

Strategically Creating the Future of God’s Church / Innovation – While we are proud of our past, we also fully understand that changes will be necessary in order that we may grow and prosper within the community we serve. We have tried certain initiatives with varying degrees of success but are looking for leadership to assist us in continuing to develop and implement new ideas that will enable us to maintain relevance in a changing world.

Nurturing Care and Compassion for God’s Creation – We have a large and spiritually diverse congregation. Having an Associate Pastor who appreciates and respects these different individuals and groups is essential to maintaining our sense of community. This can be as simple as interactions after church or at coffee hour, to leading Bible studies or having meals with different groups. Regardless of how it is accomplished, those connections are important to our church community.

Who Is God Calling Us To Become?

God is calling us to be the best of who we are now, building on those strengths in partnership with our new Senior Pastor and trusting in God’s love and guidance to keep us ever changing and growing in response to the needs of our congregation, our community and the world.

God is calling First Church to reach out to the ever-present challenge of supporting and lifting up our community and congregation through times of need. In our close-knit community, illness, loss and grief touch all of us. The passing of the young is particularly painful. We have children and adults in our community battling life-threatening cancer. We have community members whose physical health is on the decline, and those who are faced with the decline and death of their loved ones.

For our younger families, marital stress and struggles with children are not rare. In a recent Town of Greenwich survey, it became clear that many middle and high school aged children in town are especially vulnerable to and engaging in rebelliousness and risky behavior.

Even families free of illness and discord struggle to maintain peaceful homes and keep their kids on a good path in a world plagued by violence, social pressure, bullying and materialism.

Through our pastoral care programs, First Church has done an admirable job reaching out to and comforting the sick. Our caregiver support group acknowledges and supports those dealing with the chronic illness of a loved one. Our youth programs strive to encourage children and young adults to more deeply understand themselves and their faith and how that relates to the world around them. However, God is calling us to do more to support our members and wider community. We look forward to working with our new Senior Pastor to explore additional ways to comfort those who are in need.
We recognize that, as with all churches today, the greatest opportunity and also the greatest challenge facing us is to grow our membership and level of participation. First Church has embraced several different activities and worship services seeking to engage our congregation and community in new ways.

On World Communion Sunday last year, we joined the celebration by putting together communion tables from around the world using treasured items from members’ homelands. The entire congregation visited the different tables and sampled breads from around the world.

Our “Trunk or Treat” event before Halloween brought friends and neighbors from the entire community to share in a night of fun. The church parking lot was filled with decorated car trunks and treats, with children and adults in costume enjoying the festivities and visiting with one another. It even included a spooky tour through our adjacent church cemetery.

The annual Christmas tree sale to benefit local charities was expanded last year by wreath-making workshops organized by members who were aided by friends and neighbors who wanted to be part of the outreach effort. On a Friday night during the tree sale, the Meetinghouse rocked as “Ornament - A Trans-Siberian Orchestra Tribute Band” presented its Christmas program, complete with strobe lights and fog machines. This event was enjoyed by over 250 attendees (young and old) from the church and greater community and the proceeds have been allocated among the same local charities that benefited from the tree sale. In all, over $30,000 was raised by the tree and wreath sale and concert.

First Church has recently undergone a campus renewal. Completed projects include extensive renovations of our three parsonages and the education building, parking lot, landscaping and exterior lighting upgrades and a new nature’s classroom playground used by the preschool and summer day camp. The addition of green space and new walkways have unified all the properties and common areas. Over the course of last year (2019), we made structural improvements and electrical and audiovisual system updates to the Meetinghouse and reconfigured the narthex to be more open and welcoming while providing handicapped access to an enhanced memory garden where our after service community hour and other events are held in good weather. Last year’s project also included replacing the fixed pews with movable chairs, which now provide greater flexibility for diverse services and events.

While we will always stay committed to our core mission of assisting all in our congregation in walking in the path of God, we are committed to doing more for the greater community and adapting over time so that we remain a caring and vibrant community of Christians. We welcome and look forward to working with our new Associate Pastor as we continue to grow, develop, and implement a strategic plan and vision statement that will guide us as we lean in to the future.
Who Are We Now?

Our Life of Faith

First Church welcomes all and believes in the freedom and responsibility of the individual soul and the right of private judgment. While we do not require agreement on any specific theology, we share a Covenant of Faith in our bylaws that proclaims one God, infinite in wisdom, goodness and love, and our belief in Jesus Christ, His Son, our Lord and Savior. The covenant acknowledges the Holy Spirit who renews, comforts and inspires us.

As a congregation we worship God the creator, and offer our gratitude for God’s constant love. We celebrate the beauty and abundance of our world and reflect on our place in it. We seek to know the will of God and to live in peace.

Our congregation is welcoming, generous, supportive and compassionate. The congregation is known to lift up and support members of the church, as well as members of the community, who are struggling or going through hard times. Many in receipt of this support have described the congregation as a beacon of love and comfort when they most needed it. In addition, the congregants are active, goal-oriented, thoughtful and skilled in creating positive change.

Worship

On Sundays, there is a regular worship service in the Meetinghouse at 10 am that follows a traditional format, with modern elements introduced from time to time to enliven the service. Communion is held on the first Sunday of every month. In the summer, informal services with communion are also held at 8 am at the town beach several times a month.

Children in preschool through sixth grade join the beginning of the service then leave for Sunday School. There is a children’s message in the service each week that Sunday School meets.

Music is an important aspect of worship. The Chancel Choir includes both adult church members and professional section leaders, and we have three youth choirs organized by the age of the participating children.

Pastors at First Church do a wonderful job of balancing the spiritual aspects of worship with lightheartedness and joy. For example, a typical baptism starts with a hearty welcome to the family and their guests followed by a traditional ceremony and concludes with the pastor parading down the main aisle with the child held up for all to welcome.

We’ve previously discussed the important role that sermons play in our worship.
As we are fond of saying, “Check us out on a Sunday morning. You will go home with a heart full of love, a soul filled with peace, a mind that has been challenged and a newfound love for your neighbors both near and far.”

Education and Faith Formation

Faith formation at First Church is under the direction of our Director of Family Ministries and supported by a large group of dedicated volunteers whose main goal is to assure children they are loved and cherished by God. The vision statement of our Faith Formation and Education Committee is to instill faith in all we do and whenever we gather. The Committee’s mission is to enrich our faith by listening, encouraging and building community.

Volunteers strive to connect with children on their level. Sunday School begins with an informal discussion of the highs and lows of the past week. The main curriculum for Sunday School is the Deep Blue Rotation. This unique curriculum allows children to experience the same bible stories in different ways to aid learning. For example, the story of David and Goliath was taught through an art project one week then as a dramatic reenactment the following week. Seventh and eighth grades now meet every other Sunday in the evening for instruction with an Associate Pastor followed by dinner and fellowship where they are joined by the confirmands. It’s kind of a pre-confirmation program.

Ninth graders participate in a separate confirmation class that meets every other Sunday evening. The confirmands share a meal and then receive instruction from an Associate Pastor and Director of Family Ministries. These evenings are very popular with our youth.

In addition to the traditional Sunday School and confirmation curriculum, there are a variety of other ways the clergy and lay leaders involve children and young adults in opportunities to expand and discover their faith. Youth may participate in our activity, service and fellowship groups for middle and high schoolers. Throughout the year there are opportunities for them to participate in worship services, whether it is singing in one of the choirs, reading scripture or giving part of the sermon on Children’s Sunday. After confirmation they often become members of committees and serve as Sunday School teaching assistants.

Adult education opportunities include Second Hour talks, adult Bible study and our “Hats Off” book group. We are looking forward to offering more opportunities in this area.

Ministry and Mission

Three years ago, First Church streamlined its lay leadership structure. Instead of having a 32-member Church Committee and 15-member Board of Trustees, we now have a 16-member Church Council (13 voting members) that has brought program and finance under one umbrella. The Council formulates church policies, makes financial decisions and plans for the future. Led by the Chair, the Church Council consists of heads of major committees (including the Senior Deacon) and the Senior Pastor, the Director of Administration and Finance, the Treasurer, Assistant Treasurer and the Church Clerk. The Council meets once a month for 2-3 hours. The major committees also generally meet monthly, with the Chair then reporting up to the Council. The Chair of the Church Council reports “a better level of communication, more transparency and quicker decision making.”

Decisions are communicated to the congregation in a variety of ways—a weekly email blast, the "Meetinghouse Monthly" newsletter, the Sunday bulletin, announcements prior to worship on Sundays, the website, quarterly information meetings following the Sunday service, the annual meeting and an annual report. In the case of a time sensitive or urgent matter a special meeting of the Council would be called.

Copies of the organization structure, bylaws, budget and annual report are available upon request.

Diversity in our context means that our congregation has a variety of religious, political and cultural heritages. Our congregation includes a significant number who were raised in different Christian denominations and, in some cases, religions. Our congregation has political affiliations and views across the spectrum. Our congregation includes members from countries throughout Europe, as well as Asia and Latin America.
First Church has been open and affirming since 2003 and we pride ourselves as being a welcoming congregation, truly welcoming to all. That said, however, the community that we serve is not racially diverse and is limited as to ethnic diversity. One area that we have started to consider is our openness to the disabled. Our Interim Senior Pastor has recently been to a conference of the UCC Disabilities Ministry (UCCDM) about how churches are challenged to make their facilities "A2A" or Accessible to All and preached on this subject.

Participation and Staffing

As shown below, First Church’s staffing, lay leadership and organizational structure reflect a remarkably high level of involvement at various levels of our church community and clearly confirm our commitment to Christian education for all ages, excellent music ministry and our long history of mission outreach.

Current annual expenses (dollars budgeted for most recent fiscal year) are $2,241,744.00. The church currently has no debt.

Total ministerial support is $335,000, which represents 15% of the budget.
The church has never failed to pay its financial obligations to a minister.
Our church participates in Our Church’s Wider Mission (OCWM – Basic Support) at a level of $15,000.

In January 2019 the congregation approved the Meetinghouse and memory garden renovation and upgrade project that will be undertaken this summer with a total budgeted cost of $1,508,340, with up to $1,000,000 to be provided from the endowment.

In some cases, you must go outdoors to go from one handicapped accessible place to another. This summer’s project for the Meetinghouse includes handicap access to the memory garden.

By managing our budget and finances prudently, we seek to be responsible stewards of First Church’s resources so as to balance the needs of current membership with the needs of future generations of members.

Our annual budget is initially drafted by our Director of Church Administration and Finance who solicits input from the various profit and expense centers. It is then reviewed and discussed with the Budget Committee in a series of meetings held starting in February, with the Stewardship Committee providing necessary input on the revenue side. The proposed budget is then submitted to the Church Council for its approval prior to being brought before the congregation at the annual meeting in June.

Historical Information

Three of the most significant happenings in the history of the church in the past ten years include the celebration of our 350th Anniversary, the change to the structure of the governance of the church and the most recent creation of a church campus and major renovations of the properties as a result of the 350th Anniversary Capital Campaign.

The 350th Anniversary, “Honoring the Past, Celebrating the Present, Leaning into the Future”, was celebrated from May 2015 to April 2016 and was the most significant event of the past ten years. The goal was to not only coordinate a series of celebratory events but to emphasize the impact this process had on helping First Church achieve our potential in the 350th year and beyond. Highlights included:

- A “First Church Flashback” featuring a nugget of First Church history each Sunday.
- The Rev. Dr. Brenda Stiers Memoria Speaker Series
- The launch of the 350th Anniversary Capital Campaign for major renovations to the Meetinghouse, auditorium, parsonages and education wing and development of the church campus as well as a grant to Inspirica toward new deeply affordable housing for homeless community members in nearby Stamford, CT.
- Created a Time Capsule to be opened in 2065 at the 400th anniversary, Special Harvest Sunday food drive, participated in two parades, neighborhood tour, Founder’s Day Picnic
As previously mentioned, a major change in governance was initiated in 2016. The new governance structure has been an important step in avoiding/resolving conflicts. Other policies also aim to mitigate conflicts. Quarterly information meetings of the congregation have been inaugurated. Congregants are welcome to sit in on Church Council meetings. A weekly email blast and monthly newsletter are published. Surveys have been undertaken before the searches for new pastors have begun. All members have the opportunity to have their voice heard.

Of course, First Church has not been without conflict in the past. We have a history of strong lay leadership and congregational involvement. Our acceptance of differing views and faith perspectives has encouraged members to voice their opinions. The resignation of an Associate Pastor in July 2011 and a Senior Pastor in January 2012 resulted in high emotions and a reexamination of the governing process. As these events were developing, lay leadership created task forces to define and address problems that had surfaced. The outcome has been changes to governance, increased communication and clear guidelines for pastor compensation and housing.

Who Is Our Neighbor?

Community Vision

Service and Advocacy

First Church has a rich tradition of outreach in support of local, national, and global charities as demonstrated for instance in the long-standing commitment by our Women’s Fellowship to the operation of “The Rummage Room”, a thrift shop in Old Greenwich that currently generates annual profits in excess of $150,000, all of which is allocated to the support of over 30 charities annually.

Each year more than 100 First Church volunteers help sell close to 500 Christmas Trees on the Church front lawn, raising $30,000+ that is distributed among a group of charities selected by the Church Outreach Committee.

First Church also is a long-time supporter of H.O.M.E. (Homeworkers Organized for More Employment), a craft cooperative working with the rural poor in Hancock County, Maine, by hosting the H.O.M.E. Craft Fair on our premises the weekend before Thanksgiving each year. Tradition also calls for H.O.M.E. to receive half of the over 200 shopping bags of food items contributed by members of the congregation at the “Harvest Sunday” Service held every year the weekend before Thanksgiving. The remainder of the donations are given to a local food bank.

First Church is sponsoring and providing some financial support for an Afghan refugee family with four children ages 5 to 16, that arrived in the United States in 2017 and now reside in nearby Stamford, CT. A task force of around 40, which includes about 20 non-members, is providing support with civic, academic, employment, health care and cultural integration.

Our 350 Year Anniversary Capital Campaign, which concludes in 2018, raised over $1.7 million, of which $250,000 was designated to provide a lead grant in the development of a “Deeply Affordable Housing” project in Stamford created by the local charitable organization, Inspirica, whose Mission Statement is “To break the cycle of homelessness by helping people achieve –and maintain – permanent housing and stability in their lives”. A number of First Church members are also actively involved as volunteers at Inspirica.

Some 30 Church members participate annually in a 20-year tradition of preparing and serving hot lunches once a month at the only soup kitchen in Stamford.

Each year in November/December members of First Church organize a “Giving Tree” opportunity to choose a gift fulfilling a wish of our friends at H.O.M.E. and at Pilgrim Towers, a senior residential community in Stamford. In 2018 160 Christmas wishes were fulfilled through the labor of volunteers gathering and distributing the wishes and the gifts.
Engagement with the wider UCC
First Church provides financial support to Our Church’s Wider Mission (OCWM) and hosts the Fairfield West Executive Committee every other month. One of our pastors is the registrar for the UCC Fairfield West Association and a delegate to the General Synod 2019 in Milwaukee. Our Director of Family Ministries is a Board member of the CT Association of UCC Educators and a graduate of the Vibrant Faith University “Faith Formation” program. A First Church lay leader is a member of the UCC Fairfield West Executive Board.

A First Church youth group under the leadership of an Associate Pastor undertook a mission trip to the Houston, Texas area this past summer, working with the UCC Disaster Recovery Ministry in helping families that had been displaced by Hurricane Harvey get back into their homes.

First Church proudly adopted the Open and Affirming designation in 2003, warmly welcoming all people from our broader community into our congregational life and ministry.

Ecumenical and interfaith activities
Our Pastors are expected to join the Greenwich Fellowship of Clergy, a group representing ministers from about a dozen local churches and synagogues. One of our pastors is also a member of the Interfaith Council of Southwestern Connecticut.

In 2018 the First Church youth again helped prepare over 100 Thanksgiving meals together with the youth group at Temple Sholom in Greenwich.

Our Director of Family Ministries leads middle school children in our Sunday School on visits to the Stamford Mosque and to Temple Sholom in an interfaith “exposure” project.

First Church recently signed up to participate in a “new for Greenwich” project called “Sharing Sacred Spaces” in which ten congregations/communities of faith will organize visits to worship spaces representing different faith traditions in order to build interfaith understanding, bridges and solidarity.

Mission
First Church’s stated mission is “to proclaim the gospel to all people and to work for the promotion of justice, the reign of peace, and human understanding in all our relationships. We strive through our example to overcome exclusionary practices, discrimination and violence in our society based upon considerations, including but not limited to race, ancestry, age, physical or mental limitations, gender, sexual orientation, social or economic class, and religious background. We commit ourselves to work towards ending hatred, prejudice and discrimination, thereby providing a safe physical, emotional and spiritual haven. As Jesus accepted and included all people, so do we as individuals and as a congregation welcome all who wish to enter our community of faith and invite their participation in the full life of the church. Without exception, we accept each person who joins our community of faith, as an individual and our equal within God’s family.”
The essence of our mission statement underlies the many outreach activities that, through the time, talent and treasure of members of our congregation, provide support to local, regional, national and worldwide organizations.

As stated previously, First Church is and always has been the community church for the communities of Old Greenwich and Riverside within the Town of Greenwich. As we seek to grow our membership in order to better live out our faith journey, it is important that we not only retain but strengthen that position. It is essential that over time our new Senior Pastor become engaged, recognized and viewed as a spiritual leader outside the church and in the community as a whole. It goes without saying that initially the time allocation of that person will need to be directed towards getting to know and understand our congregation, individually and as a whole, but ultimately it will be important that he/she also be a vital presence in the broader community.

Mission InSite Report

First Church’s MissionInsight report illustrates the continued trend of growth that we have seen over the past ten years. Albeit slight, the population including families and households is projected to continue to grow over the next ten years. This continued growth trend highlights the opportunity to strengthen community outreach and bring more members into the First Church community.

First Church’s internal demographics are similar to those of the adjacent neighborhoods in terms of largest racial/ethnic group, types of families, employment, primary language and educational attainment. Income level of congregation has not been surveyed, but it is thought to be inline with surrounding neighborhoods. The notable difference between the demographics of the neighborhood and our church is the average age. The average age of members is older than the 38-year old average of the community, but the number of younger members joining is increasing, albeit slowly.

The demographics of the First Church community directly shapes the ministry because of the deep involvement of members on the many committees. Similar to the internal demographics there are more people in the 60+ age range serving on committees than the younger members and there is little diversity in ethnic/racial groups. Over the past few years it is clear that the demographics of the neighborhood community, specifically the average age and number of families, has been shaping the development of a variety of ministry and programming opportunities ranging from worship opportunities, to church school, to all community family activities (e.g. Trunk or Treat and movies on the lawn). While we have seen an increase in participation in evening family activities, that has not transferred to an increase in families with young children participating in Sunday School. One hypothesis is that this is a response to the many competing Sunday morning activities (e.g. sports practices and games). As a result, we are aware of the need to consider ways to expand activities to incorporate new concepts and worship times in response to today’s evolving demographic trends.

Community Impressions

When you talk to community leaders about what First Church is known for they talk about the long history, tradition and community involvement. More specifically they mention the 350th Celebration, youth involvement (e.g., carrying the cross to the beach in preparation for the Easter sunrise service), work with local charities, community caroling and the annual Christmas Tree sale the proceeds of which are allocated to local charities.

When one asks new people what got them involved in the First Church community many of the answers are the same. They include; inspiring sermons, fellowship, the welcoming environment, the music, increasing younger membership, the children’s programs, community connections, openness, tolerance, being part of a genuine faith community and beach services.

Describe some areas of strength in this church’s ministry.

- The church’s ministry is constant, compassionate and flexible. H.O.M.E. works on ground that is always shifting, plans are made as easily as they are changed when working with people experiencing poverty. The ministry of FCCOG has been steadfast in that environment, approaching our work and the people we serve with a unique patience.

- Our experience with the Church is similar to what one might experience in an extended family – an openness to messiness, an eagerness to assist and meet our work where it is at – in many cases the ministry has met us in the trenches of deep addiction, hoarding challenges and chaos. Mercy is indeed jumping into the chaos of others – the ministry of FCCOG embodies that spirit.

Describe a significant experience you have had of this church’s ministry.

- We have experienced loss alongside people in the ministry – long term residents of our shelter community have passed; founders have passed – we have experienced solidarity and support during transition of leadership at H.O.M.E.

- Staff at H.O.M.E. value immensely the mentor role that members of FCCOG have played as we lead this large organization. We are a poverty organization and our work touches on immediate response to poverty as well as systemic change in relation to issues affecting people in poverty. H.O.M.E. has benefited from guidance from long term volunteers, many who have been coming to H.O.M.E. for decades.

- H.O.M.E.’s relationship with FCCOG has provided an opportunity to build bridges between social classes by breaking bread and being in the work together. Year after year volunteers from FCCOG come to work with us rather than for us.
• This ministry has impacted our programs with financial support for items such as purchasing playground equipment for our homeless shelters, purchasing wood stoves for the shelters and a passenger van for H.O.M.E.'s Summer Camp Program.

• Each year, staff from H.O.M.E. travel to FCCOG for a craft fair. We sell crafts to assist people living in poverty. We also sell crafts as a method to build bridges and connect people who are housed with people who have no housing. Parishioners open their houses to the travelling staff and support the fair with advertising and set up. During those times it is evident that everyone has a seat at the table.

We are grateful for the long relationship FCCOG has held with H.O.M.E. Inc. and are blessed to have shared life with so many people in an authentic and open environment. We're honored to be on this journey with FCCOG.

Warm Regards,

REFERENCE LETTER:
FIRST CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH OF GREENWICH UCC

REV. JOHN W. COLLINS
jwcetc451@gmail.com

It is a pleasure for me to act as a reference for the wonderful folks at First Congregational Church of Greenwich. I was the Interim Senior Minister at FCGO from June 2012 until August 2014. When I arrived, the congregation was in the early stages of recovering from a painful and awkward conflict with its most recent Senior Minister. His departure a few months before had been marked by a good deal of rancor and conflict. But one of the first things I noticed about First Church was their resilience in the face of this difficult moment. By the time I arrived, the congregation, with the able help of their excellent Associate Ministers, had already begun the work of healing the divisions created by the conflict. This process continued during my tenure, but it was a process that was driven mainly by a lay leadership eager to heal the wounds and turn the church’s attention toward the future.

This was my experience with the FCGO congregation throughout my ministry there. It was, and continues to be, a church with tremendous talent and resources in its laity. Over and over I found a willingness to do the work necessary to move the church forward. Because it is situated in one of the most affluent communities in the nation, it has a unique foundation of resources to be an effective community of God’s people. There is depth of leadership, expertise and a dedication that other congregations would envy. This was evident in two initiatives that began during my time and came to fruition during Richard DenUyl’s ministry.

The first of these initiatives was in the area of governance. For time out of mind the church had been governed by two powerful committees, the Diaconate and the Trustees. This arrangement had served the church very well in a long period of calm and productive ministry. But the conflict in 2011 showed the limits of this governing style and through a thoughtful process, led by lay leadership, a new structure came into being which included an umbrella Council committee. Again, the skill, dedication and willingness to solve problems was evident in the work of this task group.

The second initiative was in the crucial area of Welcoming. This is another way of saying church vitality. I am told that this initiative continues and would be a fruitful area for the next Senior Minister to work with. I say this because I believe that First Church, with its resources and depth of leadership can be a model for what relevant parish ministry can be in the future.

My time at First Church was one of the most rewarding experiences in my 40 years in parish ministry. Like every church, it faces the challenge of creating a vital future while being attentive and compassionate to its membership. But it is a warm and caring congregation, filled with talented people, and I know from experience that it is a special community in which to practice ministry. Please feel free to call or email if you would like any further information.

Closing Thoughts

Closing Prayer

“And when you turn to the right or when you turn to the left, your ears shall hear a word behind you, saying, ‘This is the way; walk in it.’” -- Isaiah 30:21

Now that all the questions have been answered and all the options weighed, there is still the matter of the Spirit. We humbly ask God to send us an inspiring, loving, and engaging Associate Pastor who can help us to experience God’s grace, compassion, and mercy, and who feels called by God to love our church and our town.

May all that we do be guided by God.

Statement of Consent

The covenantal relationship between a church and those called by that church to serve as pastors and teachers and in other ministerial positions is strengthened when vital information is openly shared by covenantal partners. To that end, we attest that, to the best of our abilities, we have provided information in this Profile that accurately represents our church. We have not knowingly withheld any information that would be helpful to candidates.

As the committee charged with the responsibility for identifying and recommending a suitable new minister for our church, we have been authorized to share the information herein with potential candidates. We understand that a candidate may wish to secure further knowledge, information, and opinions about our church. We encourage a candidate to do so, recognizing that an open exchange of relevant information builds the foundation for continuing and healthy relationships between calling bodies and persons seeking a ministry position.

The Search Committee, Church Council, Director of Family Ministries, Director of Membership, Director of Administration and Finance, the congregation via survey, and staff all contributed to portions of this Local Church Profile published last year (2019). Elements of that Profile have been updated to reflect the Associate Pastor search in 2020.
