

GET PAID TO WORK FOR A NEW HAVEN PUBLIC SERVICE ORGANIZATION AND SPEND A

SUMMER IN NEW HAVEN

APPLICATIONS
NOW OPEN!

YALE UNIVERSITY PRESIDENT'S PUBLIC SERVICE FELLOWSHIP

The President's Public Service Fellowship seeks outstanding undergraduate, graduate and professional students to work with organizations that promote economic growth, human development, and neighborhood vitality in New Haven.

Earn $6,750 to $9,600 based on experience, degree pending and weeks worked. Fellowship placements range from 8–11 weeks from the end of May through August. Students may apply for placements proposed by local non-profit and public sector organizations posted on the PPSF website.

For more information and application materials, log on to the Fellowship website, or contact karen.king@yale.edu.

AT A GLANCE:

- Work in New Haven on exciting projects with city government, nonprofits, the arts, and economic development
- 35 students selected from across the university and its graduate and professional schools
- Earn up to $750–$850 per week
- Serve 8–11 weeks
- Weekly Fellowship dinners
- And so much more...

APPLICATION DEADLINE : FRIDAY, JANUARY 17, 2025

PPSF.YALE.EDU