Second Baptist Church

Suffield, Connecticut

100 North Main Street, Suffield, CT 06078
Who We Are

We are SBC.
Who We Are

About our congregation.

The people of Second Baptist have been living out vibrant faith in Suffield for more than 200 years. We are a community-based congregation committed to Jesus Christ and related to the American Baptist Churches USA. Some people come from families who have lived in Suffield for generations, while scores of others have been warmly welcomed as they moved to the area more recently.

Our church strives to be "One In the Spirit" while being diverse in age, religious background, racial and ethnic heritage, economic level and theological belief. No matter how God made you, you are welcome here. We offer a variety of intergenerational worship and prayer services, classes, and musical ensembles for people of various ages and abilities, social justice outreach, mission opportunities, interfaith ministries, nurturing fellowship and other ministries to enrich spiritual, family & community life.
The Council of Ministries consists of twelve regular members: the moderator, vice moderator, clerk, treasurer, one representative from the Growth and Outreach Ministry, two representatives from the Worship Ministry, one representative from the Fellowship and Caring Ministry, one representative from the Spiritual Formation Ministry, one representative from the Mission Service and Justice Ministry and two representatives from the Finance and Building Ministry.

The Council of Ministries coordinates and informs all the church’s ministries.

The pastor, Christian education coordinator and music director are members ex-officio without votes.

Suffield is a small city with 15,900 inhabitants but we think of ourselves as outer suburb/small farm town.

Suffield’s beautiful, historic Main Street welcomes neighbors and visitors alike into the heart of its community. But it’s the family owned farms that quilt the pastoral country roads together, forming the back bone of a town that has never forgotten its agricultural roots. Suffield is a quintessential New England town.

Our History

Historical photos of our past.
The founders of the Second Baptist Church of Suffield began a new church with the blessing of their own strong First Baptist Church in 1805. But, the origins of the First Baptist Church with its particular beliefs occurred amid much controversy more than fifty years prior to 1805.

These early Baptists emphasized certain things: Soul Freedom; Priesthood of All Believers; Congregational Autonomy; Religious Liberty; Believer’s Baptism (rejects infant baptism); The Bible. We American Baptists also emphasize the same things. Early Baptists had great obstacles to overcome and their sacrifices and faith have encouraged subsequent generations to stay the course. We at Second Baptist Church have faced serious challenges, physical and spiritual. Let us pray that sacrifice and faith will be part of our legacy for future generations.
Our History: A Timeline

1769 First Baptist Church, first Baptist congregation in Hartford County, 11th in CT
1805 Second Baptist Church organized, 15 members some from First Baptist
1809 (est.) First church, barn-like structure (south side of Bridge St.)
1810 First Pastor, Elder Caleb Green from First Baptist - rapid growth
1815-1823 Elder Bennet Pepper - continued growth; choir begun, creating uproar; Pepper dismissed for “debauchery” (mainly drinking to excess)
1824 Tubal Wakefield - 2nd Baptist joins Connecticut Baptist Convention
1825 Elder Calvin Philleo - effective evangelist; church regained respect; Sunday School initiated; services lasted for hours
1829-1839 Series of “caretaker” pastors
1833 Connecticut Baptist Literary Institution (now Suffield Academy) founded - Second Baptist pastors strongly supported it
1839-74 Dwight Ives - strong growth, numerous revivals; strong support for Connecticut Literary Institution (now Suffield Academy)
1840 New church building constructed at present location; Henry Sikes architect
1874-82 John Stubbert, Pastor - peak membership 700
1890-98 Major sanctuary renovation
1903 Third Baptist Church founded with support of 2nd Baptist
1908-1915 William A. Smith - emphasis on youth; inspired 2 members to be missionaries to Assam, India; Jesse Smith already in Burma
1919-46 E. Scott Farley - moved church in liberal direction; numerous new groups; movies in sanctuary in 20’s; closer relationship with 1st Congregational Church; preached on social and political issues - Ku Klux Klan, Communism, Fascism
Our History: A Timeline

1947-1953 Melvin Prior - Younger, family congregation evolved as did more democratic church governance; education wing (Prior) constructed; Pastor strong leader

1954-1970 Joseph A. Sisk - strong growth: numbers, activities, finances, physical plant new wing (Sisk) and parsonage constructed; deliberate growth in democratic church governance; Ecumenicism emphasized; sanctuary renovation with new Austin organ (sanctuary generally returned to original architecture); closer ties with Third Baptist

1971-1986 Odys W. Knece - Pastor thoughtful, effective preacher, counselor with emphasis on spiritual life; lay leadership remained important – programs maintained; ecumenicism important; congregation became older; service to the community important; denominational activities significant

1986-1993 Wesley Evans - Youth programs revitalized; pastor leader in community activities especially youth services, initiated programs in community with police and schools; Associate Pastor position dropped, youth led by volunteers (and Pastor); mission work expanded

1993-2003 Paul C. Hayes - Pastor involved with state, national and international ministries; service to local community; major improvement to church facilities including elevator and welcoming center; effective leader of congregation after sanctuary roof collapsed; Baptisms done in Muddy Brook while Sanctuary uninhabitable, effective preacher; church grows – music and missions strong; spiritual strength of congregation

2005-2011 David Reed-Brown – strong music program; mission outreach increased 5 trips to Gulf coast; deteriorating bell tower replaced with a replication; major renovation of kitchen in Sisk wing; significant involvement of Pastor in community work; ecumenism important Interfaith Council brought together Catholic, Congregationalists, Jewish, Muslim, Lakota Indian and Baptists to celebrate community Thanksgiving and Martin Luther King Services.

2013-2020 Rev. Thomas Carr - an experienced American Baptist Pastor when he came to Second Baptist Church of Suffield. His work manifested a deep spiritual understanding of Christian living. He led a variety of small groups in the study of the Bible and other books. Pastoral care was a strength. He emphasized the natural world as God's creation which needs the constant care of all people. He excited a loving demeanor; he lived as he preached.

Community

The Suffield community sees us as a very welcoming and inviting community-oriented congregation, our facilities host many community programs including: Boy Scout meetings, AA meetings, Red Cross Blood Drives, Interfaith Council events, as well as our Common Room is available to the greater community to reserve and use for personal and community events.

We are known for our solid music traditions, including our choir, hand bell choir, as well as regularly hosting other musical guests.

Our congregation has a sibling relationship with Third Baptist (our pastors used to exchange pulpits once per year and have lunch together regularly).

Mission and outreach

Light of Hope Mission to the Dominican Republic was founded in 2001 by our own Susan Begin. Our mission is to connect youth from the United States with clinics and schools in the Dominican Republic in order to bring perspective to the youth and a light of hope to those in need. Supplies are carried to the Dominican by the volunteers on each trip who then volunteer their time on projects and distribution while there.

Vacation Bible School brings together many Suffield churches for music, drama (the good kind), crafts, snacks, games and lots of good Bible teaching. Children in PreK – sixth grade are invited to join us. Kids in seventh grade through adults can help.

Special Needs Fellowship creates a beloved community for adults with different mental and physical challenges from group homes in north-central Connecticut. It’s a place where everybody knows your name! The fellowship meets on the second Monday of the month from 6:30 to 7:30 pm, September to June. We begin by singing folk and spiritual songs. This is followed by crafts or some other activity and finally a round of healthy snacks and drinks. At its best, the fellowship enables us to see far beyond disabilities to the beautiful people within. We hope to create a community of dignity where all are welcome and cherished.

Camp Wightman has been a ministry of the American Baptist Churches of Connecticut (ABCCONN) for almost 50 years with summer camping programs available for children, youth, adults, and families. Specialty camps include Music, Canoe, Pioneer, Senior Adults, Adults with Special Challenges, Drama, Aquatics, etc. During the rest of the year, Camp Wightman hosts weekend and weekday retreats, conferences, and workshops for school groups, churches, and other organizations.

Other missions and outreach include support for food banks and food security, support for victims of human trafficking and domestic abuse, other local and international causes. In addition, we have a strong connection and commitment to the other churches and faith communities of Suffield through the Interfaith Council. We also participate in monthly meetings and support events such as Suffield on the Green, Crop Walk, Sunrise Service, Thanksgiving Worship Service and Martin Luther King, Jr. Day Service.

Mission Statement

The grace of Jesus Christ calls us into a community of faith embracing God's Justice and love for all. We draw upon the stories of the past for insight, the experiences of the present for instruction, and the hope of the future for inspiration. We welcome all who join us in this endeavor through worship, education, mission, and service in the name of Christ.
Our Beliefs

What we believe as American Baptists

1. Soul Freedom
2. Biblical Freedom
3. Local Church Freedom
4. Religious Freedom and The Separation of Church and State
5. The Ordinances of Believers Baptism and Holy Communion
6. The Priesthood of All Believers
7. The Principle of Association
8. Missions & Evangelism
9. Racial Diversity
10. Social Justice
11. Ecumenical Cooperation With Others
What Makes us Special

- Community
- Acceptance
- No judgement
- No pressure
- Support & care
- Our music
- Our food
- Welcoming & respectful of our youth
We are dedicated to broadening our role in the Suffield community. Along with our faith and spirituality, our commitment to our neighbors is our chief asset.

Our potential areas of growth include: facilities use (expanding options for the community to utilize our facilities), working together with other churches on youth ministry (an area in which many churches have limited funding, but great potential), become more open and affirming of all people (including LGBTQ+).
