Attention Middlers!

Next Summer in Maine?

A rewarding and paid summer internship now open for applicants.

St. Alban’s Cape Elizabeth, Maine is seeking a talented seminarian.

Summer 2020 at St. Alban’s Parish, Cape Elizabeth, Maine
Exact dates negotiable

St. Alban’s, a vibrant and creative parish on the coast of Maine, minutes from Portland, is seeking a summer 2020 seminarian to assist with all facets of parish life. This could be a terrific learning experience for a candidate for ordination who is drawn to parish ministry. With supervision by the rector and associate rector, the seminarian will assist in preaching, teaching, and pastoral care, as well as parish communications and administration and children’s summer programs. Lots of opportunity for clergy and lay leader interaction in this internship that could be refined to pursue particular interests of the seminarian. Transportation costs, stipend and housing for a single are offered, pets cannot be accommodated. A car is needed.

If you are interested in this new opening, please email: tboggs@stalbansmaine.org to begin a conversation. Applications are being accepted now.
