Mack
2008 - 2021

Dog gone
to God’s everlasting arms.

Gone from
my side, my sight,
to God’s tender embrace.

In memory now, his joy, his life,
his unabashed love for me, us, all.

Gratitude for all that he was,
God’s gift to me, to show warmth,
forgiveness unconditionally,
For family, clan, he ran and dove,
Fetched and returned tail wagging, bark engaging,
eyes alight with his treasure,

The ball!

And our love and affection and all.

Rest, dear friend, in God’s cuddly peace, assured you have not left us, never will.

And of our thanks, for you, dean
of comfort, forgiveness, affirmation, joy and love,

Always deep down,
the one for whom a long-ago, lonely little boy
dreamed day and night.

Rest in peace, Mack.

And thanks.
