

YDS COURSE REGISTRATION IN SELF-SERVICE BANNER

A how-to for students

SELF-SERVICE BANNER (SSB)

- Beginning Spring 2024, YDS students moved to a new platform for registration called Self-Service Banner
- Most of the rest of the University also uses Self-Service Banner. Our move aligned us more closely with colleagues in the Graduate School and most Professional schools and makes cross-registration in courses outside YDS less confusing (we hope!)
- SSB gives you the opportunity for direct registration – once you complete your registration, you will appear as a “Student” on the Canvas course site.
- Although your advisor does not approve your course schedule on-line, you are still expected to meet with your adviser at least once per term.
- It’s your responsibility to be familiar with YDS enrollment policies during registration such as the “50/50 rule”, minimum enrollment, Elementary languages, and extra work in Undergraduate courses.
 - Use the tools! (Concentration worksheets, Yale Degree Audit, YDS Bulletin)

Foreign Language Study

For M.Div. and M.A.R. students, degree credit may be received for any foreign language study beyond the elementary level. Degree credit may be received for elementary-level language study only if:

1. The language is necessary for reading original texts of the Judeo-Christian tradition, or
2. The language study is required for the degree (as in the case of several concentrated M.A.R. degrees), or
3. In consultation with the student's adviser and the associate dean of academic affairs, the language is deemed necessary for a specified course of ministerial or other professional development.

For students in the comprehensive M.A.R. program or the M.Div. program, elementary-level language study can receive elementary-level credit. In a concentrated M.A.R. program, distribution will be determined in consultation with the student's adviser. Normally, elementary-level languages will be twelve hours, and further credit will be given only for intermediate-level languages. The Reading, Spanish for Reading, and German for Reading are not eligible for elective credit.

Normally, elementary-level foreign language study will not be credited toward S.T.M. degree requirements. Such courses are recorded on student transcripts.
